Sleeping comfort

AT ITS FINEST

The bed is one of the most pleasant places in our day-to-day life – a place for restful sleep, relaxed reading or for spending time with your partner. But many people make do with very little comfort and convenience here. While they use adjustable furniture for everything from car seats to living room sofas, they are content to lie on a rigid surface at night. Lifestyle beds from Stiegmeyer offer so much more than this. The electrical adjustment options create a new sense of well-being.

Just set the backrest to an upright position for reading, or swivel the mattress into a sitting position for breakfast in bed. Get up in the morning at the ideal height and start the day fresh. Our lifestyle beds support and pamper you at every stage of life. Health problems caused by lack of sleep and an uncomfortable lying position are avoided from the outset.

SLEEPING COMFORT FOR EVERY TASTE

Adjustable beds unfold their advantages even better when a tailor-made mattress moves with the mattress base and precisely realises all positions. All Stiegmeyer lifestyle beds can be ideally combined with two high-quality mattresses: With its opulent height, the pocket sprung mattress goes particularly well with the suite eMotion, while the two-layer cold foam mattress Sky living impresses with its combination of modern materials.

Both mattresses have a pleasantly soft climate fibre cover that can be removed and washed.

Pocket-sprung mattress

Three layers with a total height of 22 cm* combine to form a mattress that meets even the highest demands. Perforations in the top layer promote a healthy microclimate, while incisions in the base layer enable perfect adaptation to the mattress base. The integrated edge zone reinforcement makes it easier to stand up and sit on the side of the bed.

You can choose between the hardness levels H2 (soft/medium) and H3 (medium/firm). Enjoy the sleeping experience of your dreams.

Sky living cold foam mattress

The high-quality two-layer mattress Sky living consists of a 2 cm thick layer of flexible Sky-therm® foam and a 12 cm thick cold foam base. The mattress is 16 cm* high in total. Here too, incisions in the base optimise flexibility, and an edge zone reinforcement makes it easier to stand up. The Sky living is particularly suitable for the Libra and Lindeo models.
